

Creating our Reality

Once a person is ready to take full responsibility for their life an amazing possibility opens up to them ... the realization that they are the creator of their reality.

We determine what we believe and whatever we believe determines what we perceive as real. Our beliefs determine our actions and the results that they produce.

Now, almost everyone already holds deep unconscious beliefs that limit them, and they cannot see the infinite possibilities open to human beings. Most people do not believe in their sovereignty as the creator of their life circumstances.

Many people are not ready for this level of self-responsibility and therefore feel the need to blame others and circumstances for their current life situation.

Believing this is very disempowering and creates being a victim.

Once a person learns how to operate as Source Awareness and manage their unconscious beliefs, they begin to create their life to be joyful and successful and they live an amazing life that most people only dream about!

There are little known ways to rapidly accelerate developing these abilities ...

The Self Discovery Life Mastery Process is the most direct, Evolutionary and Revolutionary Strategy – currently available – to rapidly accelerate Self and Life Mastery!

Copyright Rob James, Self Discovery Group LLC